DAY 3 ALMATY – CHARYN CANYON TOUR FOLLOWED BY KOLSAI LAKE TOUR

Breakfast 0700-0730 Hrs

0800 Hrs Proceed for Charyn Canyon tour

The canyon formation is along the banks of the fast flowing Charyn River in a northern flow stretch of about 80 kilometres, which is a tributary of the Ile River; the river has a total length of 393 kilometres. The river rises from the Tian Shan Mountains that is spread over the arid semi-desert to the east of Almaty. In parts, it attains a depth of 150 to 300 metres. The geological formation of the canyon is of sedimentary red sandstone which has been subject to the "atmogenic process" of water and wind erosion resulting in "weird and colourful formations" in the form of sculptures.

Packed Lunch will be provided (Veg / Non-Veg Biryani with Curd)

Kolsai Lakes are a group of three picturesque alpine lakes located in the Almaty region of Kazakhstan, near the border with Kyrgyzstan. The lakes are part of the Kolsai-Kolderi National Park, which covers an area of about 16,800 hectares.

The three lakes are known as Kolsai-1, Kolsai-2, and Kolsai-3, each at a different altitude and offering unique natural beauty. Kolsai-1 is the lowest lake, situated at an elevation of 1,818 meters (5,965 feet) above sea level. Kolsai-2 is the largest and most picturesque of the three, located at an altitude of 2,252 meters (7,388 feet). Kolsai-3 is the highest lake, nestled at an elevation of 2,850 meters (9,350 feet) above sea level.

The Kolsai Lakes are renowned for their crystal-clear turquoise waters, surrounded by dense coniferous forests, meadows, and snow-capped peaks. The area is rich in biodiversity, with various plant and animal species, including rare and endangered ones. The lakes and their surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hiking, trekking, camping, and photography.

To visit Kolsai Lakes, you typically need to travel from Almaty, the largest city in Kazakhstan. The journey takes approximately 3-4 hours by road, covering a distance of around 330 kilometres (205 miles). It is advisable to arrange transportation beforehand, either by hiring a private vehicle or joining a guided tour.

It's important to note that due to the pristine nature of the Kolsai Lakes and the national park, there are regulations in place to preserve the environment. Visitors are expected to follow guidelines, such as not littering, not camping in prohibited areas, and respecting the flora and fauna.

Overall, Kolsai Lakes offer a breathtaking natural retreat for outdoor enthusiasts and nature lovers, providing an opportunity to experience the beauty of Kazakhstan's alpine landscapes.

Breakfast 0700-1000 Hrs

Proceed to Gorky Park (Gorky Central Park is a public park located in the heart of Almaty, Kazakhstan. It was founded in 1856 and has since become one of the most popular recreational areas in the city. The park covers an area of over 100 hectares and is named after the famous Russian writer Maxim Gorky.

Gorky Park features a variety of attractions and amenities including walking paths, playgrounds, sports fields, cafes, restaurants, and a small lake. Visitors can rent bicycles or rollerblades to explore the park or simply relax on the grassy lawns. In the winter months, the park transforms into a winter wonderland with ice skating rinks and other seasonal activities.

Throughout the year, the park hosts various cultural and entertainment events including music concerts, art exhibitions, and outdoor movie screenings. Gorky Park is a great place for families, friends, and couples to spend a leisurely day in a beautiful and peaceful setting.)

1400 Hrs Proceed for Lunch at Indian Restaurant

Proceed towards the tour of Kok-Tobe. It is a mountain which is the highest point of Almaty, Kazakhstan's largest city. There is a popular recreation area on top of the mountain. The mountain's height is 1100 meters above sea level. Kok-tobe is one of the main landmarks in the city, and it is popular among visitors and tourists to Almaty.

The Kok-Tobe recreational area has a variety of amusement park type attractions and restaurants. The City Terminal is located near Hotel Kazakhstan. Also, there is a 372 meters tall TV Tower at the foot of the mountain. The tower can be seen from most parts of the city.
